

Research webinar series on Modern Greek Studies organised by the British School at Athens and the Greek Politics Specialist Group

Organisers: Eirini Karamouzi (University of Sheffield) and Lamprini Rori (University of Exeter)
Host: John Bennet (Director of the British School at Athens)

Monday, 5 October 2020, 17:00-18:00 (UK time)

Speaker: Dimitris Sotiropoulos (University of Athens)

Title: 'Populism, party politics, and the economic crisis: contrasting the case of Greece with the case of Portugal'

Discussant: Lamprini Rori (University of Exeter)

Monday, 14 December 2020, 17:00-18:00 (UK time)

Speaker: Iosif Kovras (University of Cyprus)

Title: 'Who's sorry now? Explaining (Non) Apologies in Post-Crisis Europe'

Discussant: Stathis Kalyvas (University of Oxford)

Monday, 01 March 2021, 17:00-18:00 (UK time)

Speaker: Foteini Kalatzi (SEESOX, University of Oxford)

Title: 'A 'bare life' in the borderlines of the Mediterranean'

Discussant: Dimitris Skleparis (Newcastle University)

Monday, 19 April 2021, 17:00-18:00 (UK time)

Speaker: Antonis Ellinas (University of Cyprus)

Title: 'Antifascism in Greece: Actors, resources, and tactics'

Discussant: Vasiliki Georgiadou (Panteion University)

Monday, 14 June 2021, 17:00-18:00 (UK time)

Speaker: Susannah Verney (University of Athens)

Title: 'Researching Greek Attitudes towards European Integration through Eurobarometer surveys'

Discussant: Eirini Karamouzi (University of Sheffield)