Activity name/date/location

PSA Annual International Conference: The GPSG was the organiser of two panels, one on 'The Political Economy of Greece in Comparative Perspective: Beyond the Crisis?' and the second on 'Southern Europe After the Storm: Sovereignty, Democracy and Euroscepticism' (in collaboration with the ECPR Specialist Group on Southern European Politics)

Activity name/date/location

Pamphlet No6: First thoughts of the elections on the 7th July 2019: The purpose of this collection of opinions is to offer an initial rapid response from political and social scientists that can interpret and explain the results of the Greek elections to a wide audience

Activity name/date/location

Methodological seminar at the Centre for Political Research: The Centre for Political Research of Panteion University in collaboration with the Greek Politics Specialist Group (GPSG) of the UK's Political Studies Association co-organised a two-day intensive seminar delving into theory, methods and techniques of experimental research in Social Sciences. During the last years, experiments have been developing into a fundamental and innovative methodological tool in Social Sciences. This seminar has offered the opportunity to doctoral students and advanced postgraduate students to acquire or deepen their knowledge of conceptual and empirical perspectives

Activity name/date/location

Conference on The Political Phenomenon in Transition: Challenges for Democracy, the State and Society. GPSG is the co-organiser along with the University of Peloponnesse, of 2019 conference taking place at Loutraki 13-15th December, focusing on the complex interactions that emerge between politics, the economy and society and the new emerging trends in the deepening of democracy.

related to experimental research by focusing particularly on the field of Political Science.

Section 3: Application for 2019 Core Funding

PSA Specialist Group core funding is calculated using the following formula:

£100 + £5 per PSA member + £1 per non-PSA member

This figure will be confirmed using live membership data for your SG on 16 December 2019 so, as in previous years, please ensure your membership list is up-to-date on the PSA website.

Please bullet point below any proposed activities of the group for 2020:

1) Organisation of two joint panels at the 2020 PSA Annual International Conference (in collaboration with the French Politics Specialist Group, German Politics Specialist Group, Greek Politics Specialist Group, Italian Politics Specialist Group, Nordic Politics Specialist Group, Turkish Politics Specialist Group) and two thematic panels on political violence and a panel on 'Public Opinion, Elections and Discourse in Contemporary Greece', 2) Report and event of the research project "Comparative Analysis of the Integration of Migrants and Refugees in Greece: Personal Experiences, Best Practices and Policy Proposals", 3) Methodological Seminar in Athens, 4) Best research paper competition 2020, 5) Joint conference on Southern European Politics, (Aston University, 25th-26th June 2020) in collaboration with Italian, Spanish and Turkish Politics Specialist Groups and the ECPR SG on Southern European Politics.

I confirm my Specialist Group would like to apply for the maximum core funding available as per the above formula:

[Yes]

Reminder: In addition to core funding, all Specialist Groups may apply for additional activity-specific funding through the PSA's Pushing the Boundaries (PtB) funding scheme.

Two rounds of PtB are held annually in winter and summer. The deadline for the current round of applications is 16 December 2019. A second round of the funding competition will also be held in May/June 2020.

Final funding allocations (core funding + Pushing the Boundaries) will be communicated to all SG officers in January 2020.
