Events and Notices

15 June 2023

Dear Colleagues,

The Greek Politics Specialist Group is pleased to share the following news and details about events, employment and research opportunities, and publications:

GPSG NEWS

1. Call for Greek Parliamentary Elections Commentary - GPSG Pamphlet (2nd round)

Following the success of our previous election pamphlets, the Greek Politics Specialist Group (GPSG) will be publishing another collection of short comment pieces immediately after the elections on 28 June. The purpose is to offer an initial rapid response from political and social scientists that can interpret and explain the results of the Greek elections to a global audience.

We invite short opinion/analysis articles (200-500 words, in English) analysing, interpreting or reflecting on the outcome, likely impact or any other aspect of the campaign or election. Contributions from all our members, affiliates and colleagues outside the GPSG are welcome.

Please note that due to the volume of submissions we receive and the extremely short turn-around timeframe, we can only publish pieces that do not exceed the word count, have been carefully proof-read and require minimal editorial work.

Please email your piece to Vasiliki Tsagkroni, at v.tsagkroni@fsw.leidenuniv.nl between Sunday 25 June and midnight Monday 26 June, which is the final deadline, along with your full title and institutional affiliation.

Please do not hesitate to contact us for any further clarification.

2. Two new posts at GPSG's Executive Committee

The Greek Politics Specialist Group (GPSG) invites expressions of interest for up to two new posts of its Executive Committee (EC). The Executive Committee is the primary decision-making body of the GPSG. Through its Officers, the Executive Committee, plans and implements the Group's strategy, action plan, funding applications, collaborations and activities; manages the day-to-day budget and operations of the Group; maintains accurate records of the Group's meetings, members and activities; organises, launches and manages events, panels, roundtables, competitions, contests; edits the Group's publications, such as the Working Paper Series; and appoints the new members to its Executive and Advisory Committees, including the Convenors.

The GPSG is committed to a policy of equality and diversity and all applications will be considered purely on the basis of their merit and the individual's 'fit' to the role.

Expressions of interest should comprise a full CV and a short cover note explaining why the applicant is interested in becoming a member of the GPSG Executive Committee and what they feel they could bring to the role. They should be submitted to Panagiota Manoli and Vasiliki Tsagkroni by 23.59 on Sunday 15 July 2023. Late applications will not be considered. Applicants should be (or have become, before the deadline) full members of the GPSG. Affiliate members and full members who have not renewed their membership can do so before the deadline. If you are unsure as to your membership status, please email Vasiliki Tsagkroni.

Colleagues who are interested in joining the EC are encouraged to have informal discussions with one or more of the current Convenors and EC officers. As per our Constitution, all expressions of interest will be considered by the Executive Committee, which will shortlist candidates. If, at the end of the process, there are more shortlisted candidates than there are places, then an election will be held amongst GPSG members. Only full (paid-up) members will be able to participate in that process.

3. GPSG Blog

The GPSG encourages submissions from academics and researchers studying Greek politics, as well as practitioners and policy makers with significant expertise in the latter field. We are interested in submissions covering a wide range of topics with a focus on Greece, while we particularly encourage submissions covering less studied issues. Suggested length for each blogpost is 800 words, yet we are happy to accommodate longer posts when appropriate.

To submit an article for consideration, please e-mail it to Angelos Angelou and Alexandros Kyriakidis in a Word file.

4. GPSG Working Papers

The GPSG welcomes scholarly working papers, as well as preliminary or interim reports of ongoing research. There is no word limit, although we encourage prospective contributors to aim for a length of 3,000 – 4,000 words (research reports) and 4,000 – 8,000 words (full papers). All submitted papers go through peer-review, thus, receiving much constructive feedback that facilitates their future development. We strongly encourage PhD researchers and junior scholars to submit their work.

To submit a working paper, please e-mail it to Angelos Angelou.
